An Exposition and Sale of

Art Wares, Ceramics, Marbles, Clocks, China and Glassware Most Extraordinary.

Great and beautiful as was the opening display made by our Art Wares and China Store-as magnetic and inviting as were its offerings, yet display and values are both overshadowed now by the present very important exposition and sale. Thousands of dollars' worth of goods specially ordered for the holidays are represented in addition to a stock which originally was recognized as the peer of the largest and best. This important event will no doubt bring thousands of people here who as yet have not visited this section of the Simpson Crawford Co. establishment.

As stated in yesterday's announcement, this sale is meant to meet the requirements of the connoisseur, the seeker after the most artistic and elegant wares, the richest creations from the ateliers of the Old World. It is also meant to meet the every day wants in China or Glassware, whether they incline toward the very finest goods manufactured in these lines or to those that cost but little.
